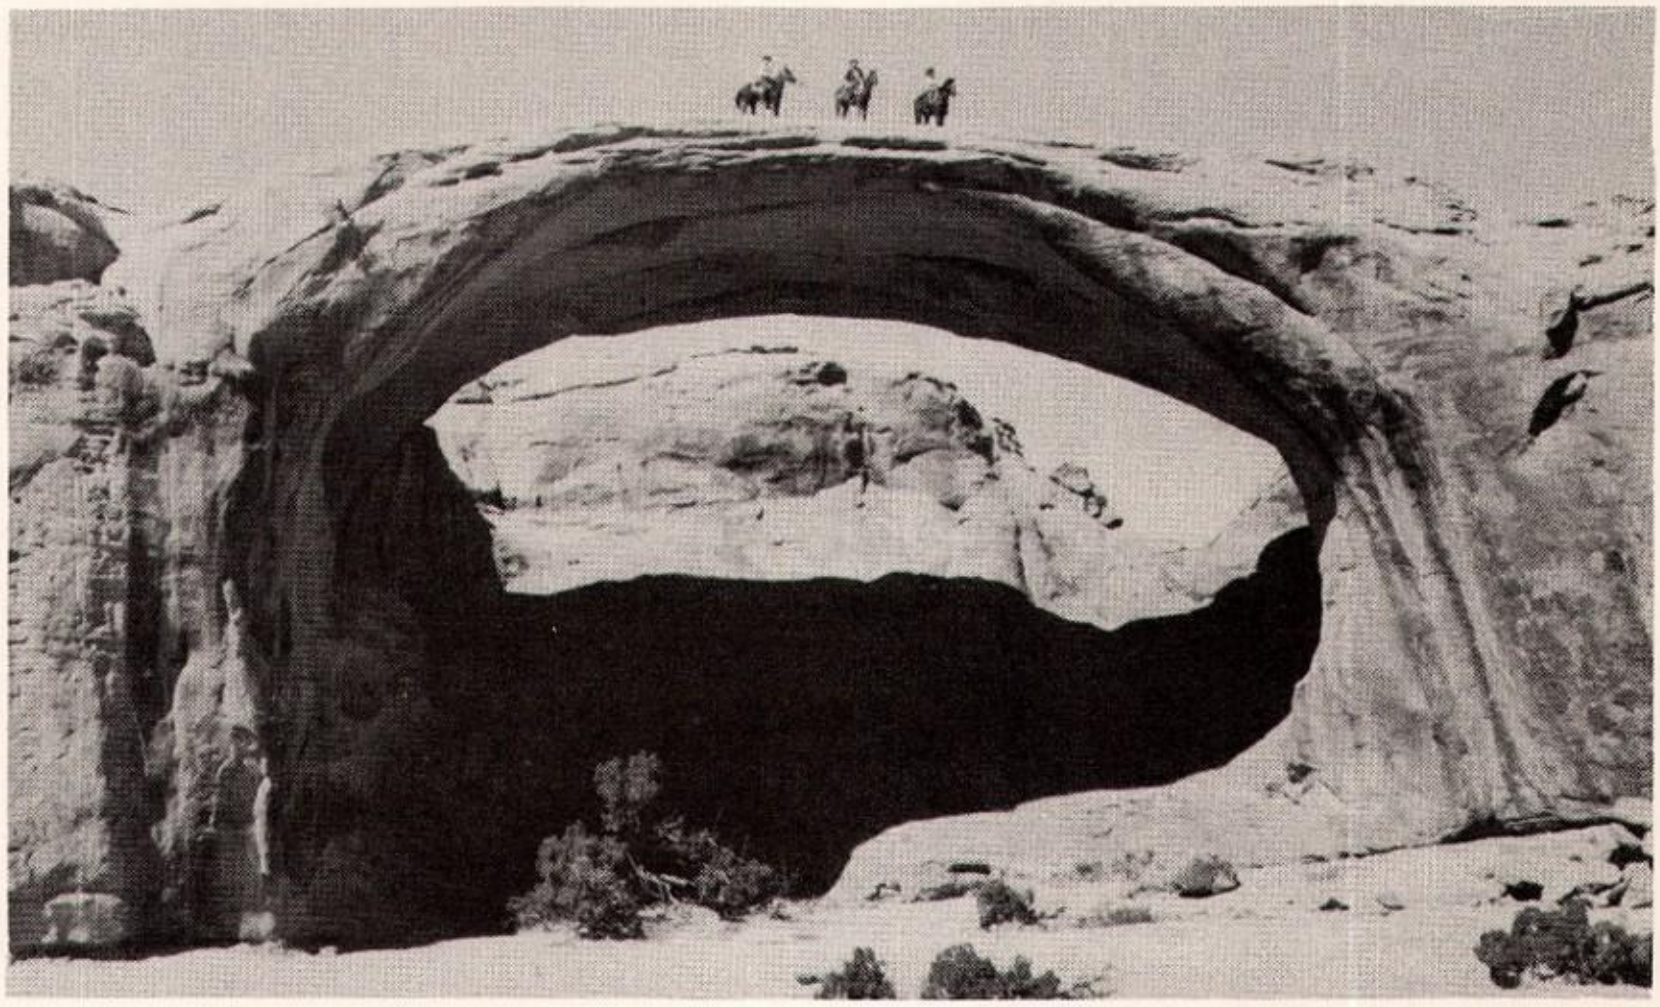
Foreword

The staff of the 1950 annual, presents to the students of Grand High, the "Mograndah."

This has marked the beginning of a new era in the history of our school. The new charter has proved successful, our football team rose to new heights, the Junior Prom was extra-special, the basketball games were exciting, and the year was enjoyed by all.

We hope that we have brought you a record of the happiest times of your life . . . . . .



The scenery of Grand County is receiving more recognition day by day. The coming of the movies is bringing us even more glory. The students of Grand High are proud to live in such a beautiful western setting as Moab.

For these reasons, we dedicate this "Mograndah" to the Scenery of Grand County

Journalism Class

From this group came the publications of Grand County High School, the "Sage" and "Mograndah". Under the guidance of their sponsor, Mr. Sundwall, they soared to new heights in the fields of Journalism. For the first time in the history of our school, these students managed to make the "Sage" a weekly publication.

Superintendent's Message

Dear Students of G.C.H.S:

The work of editing the Mograndah is invaluable. Training in selling yearbooks, keeping accounts, soliciting and writing advertisements, the art work, composition, general arrangement, in fact,-- all features offer fine training. Positions on the staff should be very attractive to Journalism and Commercial students.

I note this volume is dedicated to the scenery of Grand County. This feature is commendable. We are fortunate in living in one of the most unique scenic sections of the U.S. Our section is being brought to the attention of the country through the production of movies here, tourist trade, service clubs, and it is pertinent that the students recognize and appreciate the beautiful area in which they live..... I congratulate you.

Sincerely.
